

Cancellation / Refund

Virtual attendance: No refunds will be issued.

Temple University Kornberg School of Dentistry (TUKSoD) sponsors all continuing education in the spirit of academic freedom, but we do not endorse any particular product, technique, or philosophy. Students and Residents may attend at no charge until further notice. Full time and part time faculty can attend at a nominal fee, until further notice.

All may attend on a space available basis, and must notify the Continuing Education Department to pre-register for any course.

Temple University Kornberg School of Dentistry assumes responsibility for the compliance of all participants to be in regulation with your jurisdictions applicable laws and regulations. Contact your jurisdiction in order to comply with your state practice of dental information/management. Malpractice coverage is not ensured to any participants unless a written notice of carrier coverage commitment is provided.

Note: Temple University Kornberg School of Dentistry reserves the right to change the location, course content, time or teaching faculty of any courses as may be necessary. Any course with insufficient enrollment is subject to cancellation and registrants will be notified of such about one to two weeks prior to the course date. A full refund will be issued. No cash refunds will be issued on charged registrations. No exceptions.